JewelryAffaire

(working title)

A unique piece of jewelry is the perfect accessory to any outfit, any day. The flash of metal, the hint of sparkle, the subtlety of color against the skin, these are some of the reasons artists make jewelry every day.

For that added touch of glamour without the complexity, Jewelry Affaire is a new, special publication dedicated to the art of understated, yet elegant jewelry. You don't need to be a master craftsperson to make wearable art that makes a statement. The refashioning of a vintage piece into something new, embellishing a chain, the placing of a pendant, added beadwork; anything that exemplifies sophisticated chic on an easy to understand level can be submitted.
