EDITOR-IN-CHIEF MAKES AN IMPRESSION WITH WHIMSICAL NEW STAMP LINE

Laguna Hills, CA – October 14, 2009 – After being at the helm of top-ranked art and crafting magazines for nearly five years, Stampington & Company's Editor-in-Chief, Jenny Doh, is releasing her first stamp line. This new collection, entitled CRESCENDO*h* DOO*h*DLES, features 40 stamp images based on Doh's original doodles, including birdcages, dresses, banners, and other decorative elements.

Jenny Doh heads Somerset Studio — the mixed-media publication ranked #2 in its category by Borders — as well as the popular art-to-wear magazine, Belle Armoire, and is also Director of Publishing for Stampington & Company. In 2009, she has overseen and directed the launching of several new titles including Art Quilting Studio, apron•ology, Art Journaling, and GreenCraft Magazine. Doh received her bachelor's degree from UC Irvine and master's degree from UCLA. Aside from working and spending time with her family, Jenny is active in the arts and recently completed her term as President of the University of California, Irvine Alumni Association.

"As a stamper myself, creating my own line of art stamps has been a personal dream of mine for years," says Jenny Doh. "In developing the CRESCENDO*h* DOO*h*DLES, I wanted to capture the doodling trend that is so popular right now while still maintaining a sort of whimsical elegance that would speak to stampers. These stamps are unique enough to take center stage on a hand-stamped card while still having enough 'oomph' to stand out on a complex art journal page."

CRESCENDO*h* DOO*h*DLES includes four Clearly Impressed transparent stamp sheets (retail price ranging from $14.95 to $17.95). The entire collection is available for purchase directly from Stampington &
